

RAPHAEL

THE JEWISH COUNSELLING SERVICE

The Friends of Raphael invite you to the First Night Gala Charity Performance

Rosenthal's hysterical story of a North London family's anxious build up to their only son's Bar Mitzvah will resonate with many Jewish families, but this classic tale speaks loudly for any important family occasion – whatever the religion!

Music by Jule Styne Lyrics by Don Black Book by Jack Rosenthal Book Revised by David Thompson
Directed by Stewart Nicholls

This brand new production will be the first staging of Bar Mitzvah Boy since the original 1978 London production. For this presentation, Don Black has written new songs to unheard Styne compositions and a revised script has been written by David Thompson, author of The Scottsboro Boys, Steel Pier, and The World Goes 'Round and the script adaptation of the hit musical revival of Chicago.

Ticket includes pre-performance drinks and light refreshments plus a post-performance Q&A with the production team and company
